Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Richard and Marlys Christensen exchanged their wedding vows on December 26, 1955, promising to share their lives and love together for the rest of their days; and,

Whereas, The newlywed couple of 50 years ago has been replaced by two devoted partners who have shared life's beauty and sorrow, and have grown to love one another more because of their common journey; and,

Whereas, Richard and Marlys gave life and love to four children: Brian, Lorinda, Alan and Shellie who in turn blessed them with six grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Through their lifelong dedication to the values of caring and sharing, Richard and Marlys have helped make South Dakota a great place to live and work; and,

Whereas, Richard and Marlys will observe their 50th wedding anniversary with all the good wishes, fanfare and celebration such a milestone warrants, as their friends and relatives gather to honor them on June 11, 2006, at Trinity Lutheran Church in Arlington to celebrate their lives and the camaraderie of the day; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this special occasion in the lives of these two people who have lived exemplary lives for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 11, 2006, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
